CHRONOLOGY OF CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES, and other Historical Events, leading to the Present Position of the Methodist Church of Canada.

- 1703.—John Wesley born.
- 1738.—John Wesley converted.
- 1739.—First Methodist Class formed.
- 1744.—First Methodist Conference held; number of ministers, 10.
- 1765.—Commencement of Methodism in America by Lawrence Coughlan, in Newfoundland.
- 1766.—First Methodist Class formed in the Colonies which afterwards became the United States.
- 1784.—Organization of the M. E. Church of the U. S. Coke ordained by Wesley as Superintendent or Bishop.
- 1786.—First Session of the Eastern British American Conference; number of ministers, 6; church membership, 510. The conference under the supervision of Bishops Coke and Asbury, of the M. E. Church, U. S.
- 1791.—Year of Wesley's death. W. Losee appointed by the N. Y. Conference of the M. E. Church of the U. S. to Canada. First Class in Upper Canada formed at Adolphustown. First Class in New Brunswick formed at St. John.
- 1797.—Organization of the New Connexion Methodist Church in England.
- 1799.—Withdrawal of American Methodist Ministers from the Lower Provinces, and severance of connection between the E. B. A. Conference and the M. E. Church of the U. S.
- 1817.—Wesleyan Methodist Ministers sent into Upper and Lower Canada by the Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Committee of London.
- 1820.—Agreement made between the British Conference and the General Conference of the M. E. Church of the U. S., that Lower Canada should be occupied by the former and Upper Canada by the latter.
- 1824.—First Session of the Upper Canada Conference of the M. E. Church of the U. S. held at Hallowell (now Picton); Bishops George and Hedding presiding; number of ministers present, 36.
- 1828.—The Upper Canada Conference separated amicably from the M. E. Church of the U. S., and formed an independent organization with General and Annual Conferences. No bishop, however, was ever ordained.

- 1833.—The M. E. Church of Upper Canada, by its constitutional prerogatives and by the unanimous vote of its 60 ministers, became affiliated to the W. M. Conference of England, exchanged the Episcopal for the Presbyterian form of church government, and became the W. M. Church of Canada.
- 1834.—Secession of the M. E. Church of Canada from the W. M. Church of Canada.
- 1837.—First Methodist New Connexion Missionaries sent into Canada.
- 1841.—Union between the W. M. Conference of Canada and the W. M. Conference of England severed.
- 1848.—Union between the W. M. Conference of Canada and the W. M. Conference of England re-formed and continued till 1874.
- 1854.—The W. M. Missionary District of Lower Canada (which was not included in the Union of 1833 or of 1848) united with the W. M. Church of Canada.
- 1874.—The W. M. Church of Canada, the W. M. Church of Eastern British America, and the New Connexion Methodist Church of Canada, separated amicably from the two parent bodies in England, and formed "The Methodist Church of Canada," with the federal system of 6 Annual Conferences and the General Conference, which has legislative power. The latter is composed of 2 delegates (1 lay and 1 clerical) for every 8 ministers in the Annual Conferences. Its sessions are quadrennial.
- 1878.—Second Session of the General Conference held in Montreal; number of delegates, 230.
